Teaching kids has been my whole life. For 20 years I was a K-12 art teacher, taught Sunday school, led youth ministries, and even led a men's prison ministry. My vocation and faith spilled over into the other more than once. We are all called to spread the gospel and my call was to reach children with the truth of Jesus Christ's Love for them. It is a pure joy to serve Trinity Lutheran Church in Ellsworth, IA as the Youth Director. It is my hope and goal to build a growing program that will reach and teach others.
